

Random Security Searches

Beginning Wednesday, March 9, P&O Ports Canada will be instituting a program of random searches of vehicles entering and exiting the gates at Centerm. These actions are being done in order to comply with the provisions of the Marine Transportation Security Regulations. Thank you for your cooperation.